

Energy Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Energy Law Committee is made up of senior solicitors and representatives from industry whose legal practice relates to energy law. The Committee has vacancies due to its workload and to fill arising from the retirement of one of its members. The Committee would therefore welcome applications from prospective new members.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be partners (or equivalent) experienced in energy law, they should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

To apply, please contact the Committee Vice-Chair, Clare Hatcher, of Clyde & Co LLP, by e-mail at clare.hatcher@clydeco.com. The deadline is close of business on Friday 3rd April 2020.

When applying, please send a short CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee and what you would expect to contribute to the Committee.

Further information about the CLLS, including those who are eligible to be affiliates, can be found on the website at the address below.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
