

Ministry of Justice - Update

The Ministry of Justice has announced the following in relation to the recovery programmes following the coronavirus pandemic:-

HMCTS recovery update: <https://www.gov.uk/government/publications/court-and-tribunal-recovery-update-in-response-to-coronavirus>

Written Ministerial Statement on recovery in courts and tribunals: <https://www.parliament.uk/business/publications/written-questions-answers-statements/written-statement/Commons/2020-07-01/HCWS329/>

Inside HMCTS blog from Susan Acland-Hood on recovery update: <https://insidehmcts.blog.gov.uk/2020/07/01/coronavirus-recovering-in-our-courts-and-tribunals>

The MOJ have also published new information on the roll out and implementation of Cloud Video Platform.

Press release on rollout of Cloud Video Platform in the civil and family courts: <https://www.gov.uk/government/news/new-video-tech-to-increase-remote-hearings-in-civil-and-family-courts>

A blog on Cloud Video Platform use in the criminal jurisdiction: <https://insidehmcts.blog.gov.uk/2020/07/01/enabling-criminal-hearings-on-video-during-coronavirus/>
