

Revenue Law Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Revenue Law Committee is made up of senior solicitors whose practice involves issues of revenue law. The Committee has vacancies to fill arising from its current workload. The Committee would therefore welcome applications from prospective new members.

Applicants should be members (including affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants should be at partnership or equivalent level as experienced practitioners in the field of revenue law, be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee, and be able to commit enough time to participate in its work, including regular meetings in the City of London.

Copies of the minutes of the meetings of the Committee are available on the CLLS website and provide an insight into the work of the Committee.

To apply, please contact the Committee Chair, Philip Harle, of Hogan Lovells International LLP by e-mail at philip.harle@hoganlovells.com. The deadline is close of business on Friday 22nd January 2021.

When applying, please send a CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
