

INVITATION:

Gateway to justice - how have the new rules on service out of the jurisdiction changed the litigation landscape?

Thursday 26 January 2023, 6pm GMT

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) and the Law Society of England & Wales invite you to an evening seminar on Gateway to justice - how have the new rules on service out of the jurisdiction changed the litigation landscape?

The service out gateways in PD6B were the subject of a comprehensive suite of amendments on 1 October 2022. New gateways were introduced and many of the existing gateways were amended. This seminar will provide an overview of the new jurisdiction rules, explaining the rationale for changes and some areas of controversy. The speakers will be Mr Justice Foxton, and Tom Montagu-Smith KC, who together led the CPRC sub-committee which drafted the reforms and Sarah Garvey, member of the Lord Chancellor's Private International Law Committee and involved in their development.

RSVP

Location	Date and time	RSVP
Allen & Overy One Bishops Square London E1 6AD Map →	Thursday 26 January 2023 6pm - 7pm - Seminar (Registration from 5.30pm) 7pm onwards - Drinks reception	Please RSVP by Monday 16 January 2023 -

We look forward to seeing you there. Please note this is an in-person only event.

Please do forward this invite on to others who might be interested.