

Professional Rules and Regulation Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (CLLS) Professional Rules and Regulation Committee is seeking applications from prospective new members to support its activities going forward. Those interested in membership should be enthusiastic about the opportunity and able to contribute to the work of the Committee. Applicants should be experienced practitioners in the sphere of professional regulation, risk & compliance and/or associated areas.

Applicants must be members (which also includes affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm. Applicants must be able to commit enough time to participate fully in the Committee, including attending regular meetings virtually or in person in the City of London, and well as committing time to research, thought leadership and writing papers.

The Committee's terms of reference are attached for information. To apply, please contact the Chair, Clare Wilson, at Herbert Smith Freehills LLP at Clare.Wilson@hsf.com by the end of Monday 11th September 2023.

When applying, please send a CV and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
