

Corporate Crime and Corruption Committee – Vacancies

The City of London Law Society (“CLLS”) Corporate Crime and Corruption Committee is seeking applications from prospective new members in response to the current workload and activities of the Committee. Applications are welcomed from those who are members (which also includes affiliates) of the CLLS either individually or as part of a CLLS Corporate Member firm and who are at partner level or equivalent.

Applicants should be enthusiastic about the opportunity to contribute to the work of the Committee and be able to commit enough time to participate fully in its work, including participating in working groups, assisting with the production of written materials (including responses to consultation papers) and attending regular meetings (whether online or in person). Applicants must also be experienced practitioners in the sphere of corporate law, white collar crime and fraud.

To apply, please contact the Chair, Louise Hodges, at Kingsley Napley LLP, by e-mail at lhodges@kingsleynapley.co.uk by the end of Friday 15th September 2023. When applying, please send a CV or similar background materials and give an indication of your main areas of interest in the work of the Committee.

The CLLS is committed to the principles of equality, diversity and inclusion, and welcomes applications from all members of the profession irrespective of age, disability, gender, race, religion or sexual orientation.
