

Training Committee Presents:
Autumn 2023 Workshop

Law:Work:Learning

Ensuring On-The-Job Does The Job: a legal career-tracking review of the best experiential development practices for legal competence

Tuesday 31 October 2023, 09:00-12:45

Watson Farley & Williams, 5 Appold St., London EC2A 2HB

AGENDA

Introduction

Lindsay Gerrand (Clyde & Co), Colin Shaw (Norton Rose Fulbright)

Setting the scene: OTJ learning

Nigel Spencer (Queen Mary University of London)

Work: Learning and optimising opportunities

Tara Pichardo-Angadi (Norton Rose Fulbright)

QMUL: lessons learned

Nigel Spencer (Queen Mary University of London)

Intra-university law firm and real work experience

Laura Pinkney (Nottingham Trent University)

SQE2 learnings

Ceri Evans (University of Law), Morette Jackson (University of Law)

“Using work to learn”

Junior lawyer panel, chaired by Rachel Wevill (Travers Smith). Including Ryan Mcconville (Trainee, Linklaters), Amie-Louise Corry (Solicitor, Taylor Wessing), Dominika Wlodorska (Junior Associate, Clyde & Co.)

Reflective learning: importance and impact in the workplace

Dawne Irving-Bell (BPP), Ben Ferris (BPP)

OTJ learning outside the City private practice solicitor's profession

Cecilia van Eeden (Moore Kingston Smith) Gareth Lee (State St Global) Kate Grange KC (39 Essex Street),

Senior panel discussion: how to deploy work to accelerate legal competence

Chaired by Laura Scarlett (Hogan Lovells) including Julian Davies (Linklaters) & Greg Lascelles (Covington & Burling),